The assassination of RFK, ØØ15, VI/5/68, PDT, LA, CA

Twenty years ago, the emergence of RFK as the rapier for those who saw the Viet Nam diversion for the fabricated money-maker it was, not only made him the softest-on-communism Peacenik but also positioned him to scatter the Military-Industrial-Intelligence-Opium-trading Complex to the four winds. Knowing who had killed both his brother, the President, and Martin Luther King jr, he was the enemy within. He knew where to look for the conspirators and WHC knew it.

Small wonder he was snuffed out as he turned the corner onto the road to the White House. Thirteen months later WHC* corrected that by knocking the last Kennedy out of the '72 campaign before he had the boiler room girls lined up. (VII/88 dividend)

This issue reiterates GKG's position diagrammed every year since 1981: T E Cesar killed RFK .... S B Sirhan missed him eight times.

RFK VI·5.68

Excerpts from grand jury testimony of Maitre d' Karl Uecker .... Lillian Castellano's research ...kindness of Jan Diaz.

.... I took Mr Kennedy from the stage into this area by my left hand .... holding him on his right hand .... he got loose of my hand and shook hands with somebody .... I took his hand again .... He got loose of my hand again and shook hands again .... And then I took his hand again .... and while I was holding his hand, I was turning to my right, towards -- to the Colonial Room where the press room was.

At that time something rushed on my right side. I -- at that time I didn't recognize what it was and I saw some paper flying .... I don't even remember what it was, paper or white pieces of things.

Then I heard the first shot and the second shot right after that and Mr Kennedy fall out of my hand. I lost his hand. I looked for him and I saw him falling down. And I turned around and I saw the man standing next to me.

The arm, was holding the gun in, push the arm down on towards the steam heater, and my right arm I took around his neck as tight as I could and pressing him against the steam heater.

In the meantime somebody else came behind me and pushed me against the steam heater. The guy in front of me couldn't get loose. While I was holding the hand where he had the gun in, I was trying to get the point of the gun as far as I could away from where Mr Kennedy was laying.... I was hitting his hand on the steam table as hard as I could with my left hand, I had him right here on the wrist and hitting my left hand on the heater to get rid of the gun .... in his right hand .... and had the (my) right arm around his neck ....

Q How far was the suspect .... from Senator Kennedy and yourself at the time that the first shot took place?
A How far? As far as my left hand can reach because I remember I was trying to pull him, and the man who shot, I could feel him coming around me and falling over on the steam table and start shooting ....
Q Okay. He rushed right past you and did he reach over you at the time he shot?
A Not over me. He just -- I could feel when he -- and I guess I could feel that the gun was about this far, when he shot, right from me, from my right.
Q Your body was in between this person's and --
A -- and Senator Kennedy's.
Q And his arm reached over your body when he fired --
A Around me, around me, not over me ....

Sketch diagrams, pp 4&5, show the wounds and bullet paths inflicted by 3 of TEC's shots .... page 6 quotes Noguchi on a 4th bullet path and reprints the diagram for a 1975 slide.

. Made for a slide in 1975, adverse criticism eats up diagrams like this hoping to out-thunder and over-kill the clarity numbers 2 and 48 bring to the scene and befuddle the imagination you must bring to bear because of the multiple motions involved ... impossible to depict in 2-dimensional sketching but helpful for slide-lecturing.

RFK cont'd

After reading Uecker's testimony, studying the wound diagrams, digesting the range dimensions and believing that Sirhan's position was always in front of, with Cesar always behind, RFK, it is still reasonable to ask, " How did a jury convict Sirhan?"

Diversionary shots are an old, effective tactic. They create an unwitting patsy, feed him to the media and allow the DA to cut another notch in his holster without even trying. As David Scheim points out in Contract on America (Sapolski, NY, 1988) :

> .... but the bullet that struck Cermak was a .45 and not from the .32-calibre pistol used by Zangara, and was fired by the unknown Capone man who took advantage of the confusion ....(p9)

Guiseppe Zangara shot at FDR at a political rally in Miami, II/13/33; Chicago's mayor Anton Cermak was a visiting dignitary. Five people in the crowd were wounded. (35 years later, five people in the pantry crowd were wounded.) Despite the mayor's deathbed statements he was sure the MOB did it , Zangara was convicted and executed two weeks later.

Over the years, PWM's WHC has improved considerably on this scenario. In Dallas, diversion/confusion of a shot fired from behind the grassy knoll's fence bought the minutes required by the assassins to reach ground level and flee north as the crowd streamed south. In Memphis only one shot was required. In LA, the assassin and the patsy both fired .22-calibre pistols as Cesar took advantage of Sirhan's confusion-making. In Laurel and Washington DC, neither second gun has been found yet. The result: Patsies Galore.

In Sirhan's case, the Governor, the AG, the DA, the LAPD, the CIA, the FBI, the Prosecution, the Defense, the MOB (?) and the MEDIA all knew the vital dimension and none could lose face. When Coroner Tom Noguchi, a prosecution witness, was about to explain his autopsy report to the jury, Grant Cooper, Sirhan's Chief Defense Counsel, objected. Here came the facts that could spring his client tomorrow. He objected,and the Court suggested the doctor might omit some of the details. The all-important range was stirred into the mess of pottage dished out to the jury.

Cooper did not cross-examine Noguchi. It was that simple. The jury never had that one-to-two-inch, fatal-shot range trumpetted into its collective noggin. Because it never knew precisely where Sirhan was at the moment of murder, the Los Angeles jury remains ignorant of who killed RFK.

Because Defense Counsel Percy Foreman knew James Earl Ray was a country quarter-mile from the motel when Dr King was killed, he knew better than to put James on the stand. The Memphis jury remains ignorant of who killed MLK.

PWM's White House Control never allowed Hidell, alias Oswald, anywhere close to anything resembling a jury. The world remains ignorant of who killed JFK.

Gentle Reader, the next page is for your calm, cool, gently-irritated duplication, penmanship & 25¢ - expenditure.

Ira Reiner, District Attorney

VI/1/88

Sir:

In February 1967, the New Orleans States-Item scooped the world with the news of Jim Garrison's Kennedy investigation. Winning that battle, it lost the war against the conspiracy that killed JFK,MLK, RFK, MJK, and maimed GCW. Assuming that you enjoyed the ensuing two-year ridicule of the first and only legal attempt to discover who did kill JFK, your reluctance to step into Jim's RFK shoes is understandable.

The media reviles you; your witnesses disappear, some forever; your electronic adviser bugs your office not for your interior security but for outside surveillance; your planned surprises backfire because staff moles hand over your witness list to the defense; finally your efforts end in the assassin's acquittal.

Take heart; a little glasnost goes a long way today.

The media can't wait to trumpet the "new" LAPD evidence placed in the public domain by the Mayor's Advisory Committee, the State Archivist, the Secretary of State and private researchers.

1) The assassin is alive and well and living in California.

2) The Sirhan trial jury is ignorant of the murder's facts.

3) The one exit and three entry wounds detailed in the Coroner's autopsy report places Compton and Cooper in Club Coverup, on a par with Canale and Foreman, Hoover, Dulles, Ford and Specter, friends of the FBI, CIA and Dallas, Memphis & LA Police Depts.

4) There is a mountain of really new audio-visual evidence.

5) Test the unknown evidence: NAA (Neutron Activation Analysis).

1988 is the time to right part of the 1968 wrong and the fifth of June is allready behind you.
